Foreword

CLASS OF '56

We are the class of '56
And soon no more shall call
Our happy voices with laughter mixed
Through each and every hall.

But when we go, we'll leave behind
So many things we love.
And hope some day that we shall find
Our friends all up above.

We'll part with sorrow and with tears
For we have grown so near
And we have gone through all these years
With those we hold so dear.

Our teachers and our friends we'll miss.

The underclassmen too:
But think of all the years of bliss
That we have had with you.

Joyce Coleman

Dedication

MR. WILBUR F. GARBER

Graduation will be one of the happiest days of our lives, as we will have reached our first goal in life, although for some of us, one of the saddest, for we will be leaving our classmates and those we have loved through the years. We will step through the door and into the unsure future with cherished memories of our high school days, with all of its fun and laughter. There is no way to express our gratitude and appreciation for the effort and time given to us by our teachers, principal, and especially to Mr. Wilbur Garber, to whom we, the class of '56 dedicate our annual. He has devotedly guided us through the years, not only as our annual sponsor, but also as our friend. Without his advice and unfailing guidance and co-operation, our annual would not have been a success.

Scenic Views

Here in the midst of this ageless valley
Carved by a deft and patient hand,
Where ere we turn we pause, and humbly
Stand in awe of this immortal land.

We turn North, and there before us
Stands the Peak, with its boulders bare.
We watch each season, with brush in hand
Color its face with infinite care.

Then we turn East where mountains tower-
Mighty barriers against the azure sky.
There lie fields and streams in deep content
Held close by strong arms of mountains high.

To the South the fields and rolling hills
Stretch out until they meet the sky.
Our hearts are awed by this wonder,
God's handiwork--and all so nigh.

We turn to the West and there comes to our vision
More wonders, wonders older than time.
The farmlands below, the clouds in the heavens
Our valley of beauty, our valley sublime.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of the year of our Lord 1956, the most brilliant, intellectual, and outstanding ever to leave this building, being of reasonably sound minds, hereby bequeath:

To our principal, Mr. Boyd J. Glick, we will our gratitude and appreciation for having made our Senior year, a happy and successful one.

To the faculty we will our appreciation for their unfailing efforts and guidance during our years at M. H. S.

To the Junior Class we will our privilege to sit on the front right side of the auditorium, and our title, "Dignified Seniors."

I, JIM ALBERTSON, will my height to Richard Roadcap.

I, BETTY BOWMAN, will my trumpet to Wilma Huffman, hoping she will use it more than I did.

I, JOHN BROWN, will my ability to get out of class to Henry Almond.

I, PAULINE CLAIG, will my government notes to Audrey Showalter, hoping they will help her as much as they did me.

I, PATRICIA COFFMAN, will my ability to keep quiet on the bus to Joyce Mundy and Jacentia Kite.

I, JOYCE COLEMAN, will my ability to go skating every Tuesday to Floe Rimel, providing she leaves those Elkton boys alone.

I, NORETA DAVIS, will my ability to play the piano to Frances Harnsberger.

I, BONNIE DEAN, will my ability to be late for classes to Judith Miller.

I, HENRY DORMAN, will my ability to run track to Allen Dellinger, hoping he will do better than I did.

I, DON FINK, will my love for dancing to Mike Hinkle.

I, DONNIE FITZSIMMONS, will my ability to just sit in English class to Ray Shifflet.

I, LILLIE GARBER, will my ability to make my hair different colors to Beverly Adkins.

I, GENE HARRIS, will my ability to be mean and mischievous to any Junior boy who can stand it.

I, HUGH HARRIS, will to Mary Yancey a statue of Norman Southerly so she won't miss him so much next year.

I, BEVERLY HEATWOLE, will my ability to date boys in the service to Okie Wimer.

I, RONNIE HIGGINS, will my ability to be the greatest lover of all times to Johnny Harner.

I, CARL HOLLOWAY, will my Senior English teacher to the Junior Class.

I, J. C. HUFFMAN, will my ability to play football to Norman Micheal.

I, JANE JARRELS, will my ability to hit a B in the sextette to Lois Jean Byrd.

I, DARR LAM, will my interest in girls to Mike Hinkle.

I, JOYCE LAM, will my ability to get shorthand to Mattie Granger.

I, JANET LIFE, will my love for French to Frances Harnsberger.

I, GRAHAM LILLY, will my English grades to Chip Strickler.

I, WAYNE LISKEY, will my seat in English Class to Herbert Williams, providing he doesn't look out the window as much as I did.

I, BILLY McMICHEMS, will to next years football squad the right to make noise by the water fountain under Miss Miller's window.

I, BETTY MERICA, will my ability to sew to the underclassmen who were in my Home Economics Class.

I, DOLLY MESSERSMITH, will to Billy Blose my old white sailor hat, since I have given up all hopes of ever getting it back.

I, ROSALIE MILLER, will to Duddy Raynes a better place to play hide-and-seek than in Keezletown.

I, WAYNE MILLER, will to Charles Rodeffer my ability to write legibly.

I, CONNIE MOOMAW, will to Una Raynes my ability to get to bed by 10 o'clock during basketball season.

Will

I, JOYCE MORRIS will my nickname, Trigger to my sister, Delores.

I, LORETTA MORRIS, will my government book to Barbara Raynes, hoping she will make better grades than I did.

I, VIRGINIA NEWBERRY, will my Bermuda shorts to my sister, Louise.

I, ELLEN RAINES, will to Brenda Glenn my wise cracks in case her ample supply runs out.

I, GERALDINE RAYNES, will my petiteness to Judy Messersmith, and my ability to get on the honor roll to my sister, Barbara.

I, RUE RAYNES, will to Duddy Raynes my ability to get a boyfriend and keep him.

I, NANCY RUTHERFORD, will to Duddy Raynes and Louise Newberry all the crazy times Janet Smith, Rosalie Miller, and I have had, in hopes they will enjoy getting into as much mischief as we did.

I, DELOIS SANDRIDGE, will my ability to change a typewriter ribbon to Patricia Ann Hensley (Red).

I, JANE SHIFLET, will my French book to anyone who has the nerve to take it.

I, CHARLES SHIFFLETT, will my good behavior to Joe Smith.

I, JANET SHIREY, will my dark complexion to Shelby Blosser.

I, SHIRLEY SHIRKEY, will my natural blonde streak of hair to anyone wishing to peroxide their hair.

I, KAY SHOWALTER, will to the Junior Class a pack of gum to chew in Miss Miller's English Class.

I, JANET SMITH, will my ever present wish that Friday came four days earlier to Alice Snyder.

I, SCHERRILL SONIFRANK, will my mischief to Una Raynes.

I, NORMAN SOUTHERLY, will my ability to stick with the same date to Janice Long.

I, GEORGIA STEELE, will my little interest in boys to Hazel Steele, my sister.

I, TILLIE STRICKLER, will the remains of my old chemistry workbook to any underclassmen who might need it.

I, THELMA STROOP, will to Nancy Albrite my ability to act as F. H. A. president.

I, HANCIL THOMPSON, will to Joe Smith my ability to make good grades in auto mechanics.

I, MARY ANN TRIBBY, will my ability to laugh to Nelson Sellers; also to Betty Barger my ability to stay away from the candy store during basketball season.

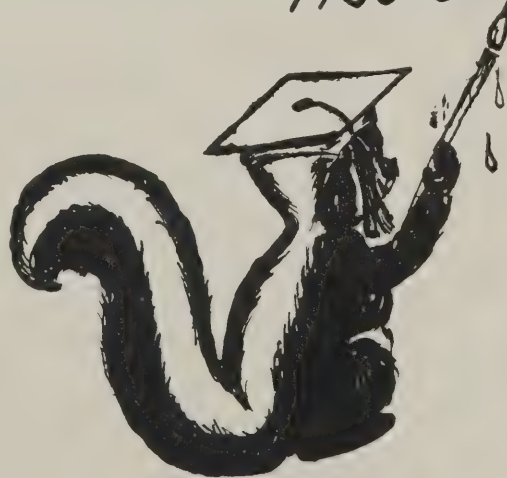

I, GENE WAMPLER, will my comb to Ramon Calonna so he won't have to borrow one.

Prop

"Mommy, is that you in this book? You look so funny!"

"Now see here son, I was a real celebrity in those days gone by, ten years to be exact."

As they turned the pages, pausing to look at the pictures, they came to the page which had the word "Prophecy" and the little skunk asked what the word meant. "The word prophecy means the foretelling of the future and here they have foretold the future of the Seniors of '56." She continued to tell her son about the gay fun and laughter she had had.....how well I remember the night those Seniors graduated, there I was behind the curtain when all of a sudden I heard a voice reciting the following verse and it was then I realized they were reading the Class Prophecy of the Seniors of '56.

Jim Albertson, six foot tall,
Is still walking girls down Senior Hall.

Betty Bowman still seen with her pony tail,
Is now head of special delivery mail.

Jack Brown has a tired arm,
From plucking chickens on his farm.

Pauline Claig, Secretary of State,
John Foster Dulles, second mate.

Patricia Coffman is no quitter,
She's now Bobby Shirey's baby sitter.

Joyce Coleman with her golden locks,
Now is knitting someone's army socks.

Noreta Davis, salesgirl at Grants,
Selling flowers and potted plants.

Bonnie Dean, a perk little wife,
Is now main feature in Henry's life.

Henry Dorman, a Virginia State Trooper,
To Bonnie he's just super-dooper.

Don Fink an All-American pro,
Has now become every girl's beau.

Donnie Fitzsimmons, our rabbit guy,
Is now in the Air Force learning to fly.

Lillie Garber, beautician fair,
Now styles the "First Lady's" hair.

Our good friend, "Monsieur Gene Harris,"
Is now walking his French poodle in Paris.

Hugh Harris, quite the girl's pest,
Is now in Florida taking a rest.

Beverly Heatwole, always jolly,
Operates puppets, Kukla and Ollie.

Ronnie Higgins, heave a sigh,
Principal now at Montevideo High.

Carl Holloway, we find later,
Working for an exterminator.

J.C. Huffman, now hard at work,
Selling peas and corn as a grocery clerk.

Jane Jarrels, a Pons Aqua girl,
Is giving the singing world a whirl.

Joyce Lam, ex-manager of the girl's team,
Is now high salesman for "Sunbeam".

Darr Lam, seldom nervous,
Now runs Harrisonburg's Diaper Service.

Madison has done much for Janet Life,
For now she is her professor's wife.

Now the famous TV actor, Graham Lilly,
Co-starring on the coast show, "Meet Millie."

Wayne Liskey, now a college man,
Is selling Kemp's peanuts by the can.

Billy McMichens, who saved his graduating tassel,
Is now married to Virginia Castle.

A perk little nurse, Betty Merica,
On her husbands' farm, healing his pet turkey.

hecy

Dolly Messersmith, our Editor-in-Chief,
Is now the nations' Secretary of Peace.

Rosalie Miller, a cute little trick,
Is now in Akron, with the man of her pick.

Proud of his job our Wayne Miller,
Parker's chief ball-point filler.

Connie Moomaw, made her great decision,
Now a scientist of nuclear fission.

Joyce Morris, the doctors' dream,
Is the cutest little nurse to be seen.

Loretta Morris types all day,
She's secretary to Gordon MacRae.

Virginia Newberry, a nurse, bless her soul,
Is now teaching her patients to rock and roll.

Gerry Raines, quite a journalist,
Is now editor of the "Counalist".

Ellen Raines married an Brethern preacher,
And now is Montevideo's English teacher.

Rue Raines, married to John Taylor,
Who is in the navy, a first class sailor.

Nancy Rutherford, cute as can be,
Can often be found on her boss's knee.

Delois Sandridge, who always liked boys,
Is now keeping house for Jim in Illinois.

Janet Shirey, the prettiest girl by far,
Is now the greatest movie star.

Shirley Shirkey, still a homemaker,
Grottoes' best tossed salad maker.

At 13th precinct, the best in the state,
Is Charles Shifflett, a police magistrate.

Jane Shiflet, who is always neat,
Is now employed at the county seat.

Kay Showalter cures all ills,
Get "Kays'" pink and purple pills.

Janet Smith, heiress to millions,
Has jilted boy friends by the zillions.

Sherrill Sonifrank, we must tell the truth,
Is now looking for the fountain of youth.

Now in Kentucky is Georgia Steele,
Hunting for cucumbers to dill.

Norman Southerly, Mary's protector,
Is now the county tax collector.

Tillie Strickler, now a nurse,
At R. M. H. has filled her purse.

Our homemaker of the week, Thelma Stroop.
Is now finding a cure for the croup.

Hancil Thompson, now married to Sue,
Their theme song is "You, You, You."

Mary Ann Tribby married to Ace,
Now exploring the outer space.

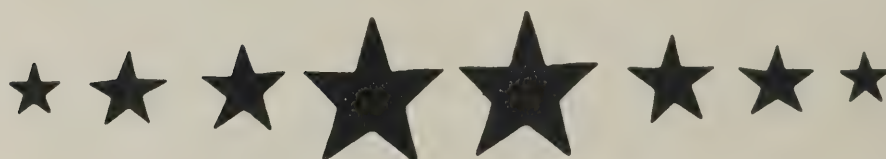

Gene Wampler whom we admire,
Is now a National League umpire.

We, the class of '56, wish you, the class of '60, all the success and happiness during your four years in high school and hope you will make the most of them, for these will be the happiest days of your lives. Through the years we hope all of you will participate in the school activities as well as co-operate with your classmates and teachers. Only with co-operation can there be success. Good luck to all of you from all the Seniors!
